

Overhauling EU farm animal welfare laws for animals, people and the planet

28 March 2022 | 9:30-18:00 CET | Residence Palace, Brussels
<https://tinyurl.com/AnimalWelfareConference>
 #ProtectEUanimals @CIWF_EU

Programme

9:30 Registration and coffee

10:00 Welcome by MEPs Tilly Metz (Luxembourg, Greens/EFA) and Anja Hazekamp (Netherlands, The Left), respectively President and Honorary President of the European Parliament's Intergroup on the Welfare and Conservation of Animals
Introduction by Olga Kikou, Head of EU Office, Compassion in World Farming

10:30 Keynote speech: Stella Kyriakides, Commissioner for Health and Food Safety

10:50 Dr Jane Goodall DBE, Founder of the Jane Goodall Institute and a United Nations Messenger of Peace (video message)
Philip Lymbery, Global CEO of Compassion in World Farming – Why the time is now for Europe to end the cage age

11:00 The political momentum for higher EU animal welfare standards

Joanna Stawowy, Member of Commissioner Wojciechowski's Cabinet, responsible for animal welfare, European Commission – How the agricultural policies can help transition to higher animal welfare standards via the upcoming EU legislation

Frank Verdonck, Head of Biological Hazards & Animal Health and Welfare Unit, the European Food Safety Authority – Scientific advice on the welfare of farmed animals, an overview of EFSA's work

Andrea Gavinelli, Head of "Animal Welfare" Unit, Directorate-General for Health and Food Safety, European Commission – The process of revision of the EU legislation: ambitions and constraints

Kristina Nordéus, Counsellor, Permanent Representation of Sweden to the EU – Animal welfare in Sweden: Experiences from 35 years of animal welfare legislation linked to natural behaviour

Ulrich Herzog, Chief Veterinary Officer, Austrian Federal Ministry of Social Affairs, Health, Long-Term Care and Consumer Protection – Animal welfare legislation - the path is the goal - challenges to the new EU legislation

Nektaria Moskofidis, Advisor Animal Welfare and Agriculture, Cabinet of Vice-Minister-President of the Flemish Government Ben Weyts – The future of animal welfare & protection: Europe, quo vadis?

Interventions and Q&A

12:30 Plant-based lunch served at the restaurant of Residence Palace

13:45 Building European Parliament consensus for higher standards

Exchange of views with MEPs Michaela Šojdrová (Czechia, EPP), Pascal Durand (France, S&D), Michal Wiezik (Slovakia, Renew Europe), Thomas Waitz (Austria, Greens/EFA), Tilly Metz (Luxembourg, Greens/EFA), Anja Hazekamp (Netherlands, The Left)

Moderated by Daniela De Lorenzo, Reporter, Politico

14:45 Accelerating the transition

Sergio Pavon Gonzalez, International Relations Officer, Directorate-General for Agriculture and Rural Development, European Commission – Animal welfare developments and international trade

Kees Scheepens, veterinarian and organic pig and suckler cow farmer – More laws, less stress for farmed animals

David Baldock, Senior Fellow, Institute for European Environmental Policy – Addressing the costs of transition in Europe: planning ways forward

Helena Wright, Policy Director, FAIRR Initiative – The pricing of ESG risks including animal welfare by investors, financial markets and companies to drive better practices

Assya Kavrakova, Executive Director, European Citizen Action Service – Citizen participation in the EU decision-making process

Interventions and Q&A

16:00 Ambitious EU laws are the key to higher welfare

Olga Kikou, Head of EU Office, Compassion in World Farming – The lives of farmed animals: current suffering and future prospects

Reineke Hameleers, CEO, Eurogroup for Animals – The year of the truth for EU animals

Joe Moran, Director, European Policy Office, Four Paws – Time to go the distance: moving from cruelty to compassion

David Garrahy, External Affairs Manager, World Animal Protection – How the EU can help defeat the global antimicrobial resistance threat

Joanna Swabe, Senior Director of Public Affairs, Humane Society International/Europe – Achieving a sustainable food system: why improving animal welfare must go hand in hand with reducing farm animal numbers and a shift to more plant-based diets

Interventions and Q&A

16:45 Seeing animals through the lens

Interactive session with award-winning photojournalist Jo-Anne McArthur, Founder and President of We Animals Media

17:30 Photography exhibition and cocktail reception

In cooperation with We Animals Media and Jo Anne McArthur

